Engels on the Law Being in Favor of the Capitalist

Because the English bourgeois finds himself reproduced in his law, as he does in his God, the policeman's truncheon which, in a certain measure, is his own club, has for him a wonderfully soothing power.

But for the working-man quite otherwise!

Friedrich Engels,
The Condition of the Working Class in England

Original article

2025-01-14

“Because the English bourgeois finds himself reproduced in his law, as he does in his God, the policeman's truncheon which, in a certain measure, is his own club, has for him a wonderfully soothing power. But for the working-man quite otherwise!”

Friedrich Engels, The Condition of the Working Class in England

Original article