

Lenin on Bourgeois Subversion of Goals

The bourgeois intellectuals in the West... naturally shift the weight of emphasis from questions of state structure to questions of local self-government. Let the petty bourgeoisie hasten to "build themselves a nest" in the "peaceful municipalities"... The task of the proletariat is to organise the masses not for this purpose, but for the revolutionary struggle, for complete democratisation today and a socialist revolution tomorrow.

Vladimir Lenin,
The Agrarian Programme of Social-Democracy in the Russian Revolution.
